Clarissa’s campaign may occasionally send text messages to your cell with important updates, at your carrier’s usual rates.

The Oakland Campaign Reform Act limits campaign contributions by all persons (OMC §§3.12.050 and 3.12.060) and prohibits contributions during specified time periods from contractors doing business with the City of Oakland or the Oakland Unified School District (OMC §3.12.140). For candidates agreeing to limit their spending, the most a candidate may receive from any person (and the most any person may contribute) is $800 per election (as of January 2018). [OMC §3.12.050(B)] A person is broadly defined as any individual, business entity, committee or other organization or group of persons acting in concert. [OMC §3.12.040] For candidates agreeing to limit their spending, the most a candidate may receive from any broad-based political committee (and the most any broad-based political committee may contribute) is $1,500 per election (as of January 2018) [OMC §3.12.060(B)].
